Lee Co.

Legg, Collensworth

CA-Divorce

T-Vices

Migration

To the honorable H. S. R. Monsie Judge of the Lee county Circuit Court.

Respectfully complaining, sheweth unto your honor your oratrix Mary B.
Lullack, ^{a citizen, &c.} that in the year 1888 while she was an infant under the age of twenty one years to wit; the age of fifteen she was married to one David Lullack ^{in Lee Co., Va.} and they lived together as man and wife about four years and six months ^{in Lee Co., Va.} during which time your oratrix was a true and faithful wife and happiness as well as pleasure seemed to exist in their home. No issue was born to them as the result of their union. In the fall of 1892 it was rumored that your oratrix's said husband as she then believed him to be, had a living wife in another state. Suspicion grew stronger as letters came to different individuals inquiring about the said David. finally a woman purporting to be his wife wrote inquiring of him and he then acknowledged that he was her legal husband. and fearing that he would be prosecuted for the offense left your oratrix and this state. other letters were written to other persons of a like import. Since his departure your oratrix has not heard

* your oratrix further alleges that since her marriage with her said husband that he has visited, associated and cohabited with lewd women; that he is guilty of the crime of adultery; that the same does come within her said husband without her procurement or consent, and that she has no other remedy but to bring her husband to law for his adultery as to cause to her knowledge she has not committed adultery with him and that the said adultery acts have complained of a cohabitation with him within the year previous to the institution of this suit.

from him. Your oratrix therefore charges that her marriage with the said David is void, that he at the time of their said marriage had a living wife from whom he was not divorced. The object therefore of this suit is to have this honorable court by virtue of Secs 2252 and 2255 of the Code 1887 to declare the said marriage void.*

The premises considered the prayer of your oratrix is that the said ~~David~~ Daniel Lullack be made a party defendant hereto and required to answer this bill on oath and that upon a hearing your honor will pronounce said marriage a nullity and void and she prays for all such other further and general ~~relief~~ relief as may be ainted to the merits of her case. May the Com. wit of Spa issue in Jackson & Blankenship Sol. for Compt.

Mary B. Tullock, Plaintiff.

Against(In Chancery.

David Tullock, Defendant.

This cause, in which the Plaintiff appears to have proceeded against the Defendant, who is a non-resident, in the mode prescribed by law against absent defendants, and he still having failed to appear and answer, came on this day to be heard on the bill of the Plaintiff and the depositions of witnesses, and was argued by counsel for the Plaintiff: On consideration whereof, the Court being of opinion that the allegations of said bill ^{are} ~~being~~ fully proven, it is adjudged, ordered and decreed that that the marriage heretofore contracted and solemnized between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, be and the same ^{is} ~~are~~ hereby dissolved, and ~~that the said Mary B. Tullock~~; and that the Plaintiff, Mary B. Tullock be forever divorced from the said David Tullock. And this cause is stricken from the docket.
